NAWCC Chapter 31

TIMEOUT

February , 2008

President's Message

The Feb 17 meeting being held at the Monarch will feature a gigantic Show and Tell. Bring your favorite or unusual clock or watch. Let's also make this also a Show and Sell. We have plenty of room to display Mart Items. Bring anything related to Clock or Watch repair.

I received notice of a Multi-Chapter meeting in Connell, WA. It will be held April 5 & 6. Registration forms available on line at daa3@msn.com and www.daa3.clearwire.net/connell.Doc.

The NWACC is conducting a New Member campaign for 2008. It is entitled: "We're looking for new faces" "every member add a member". Our Feb 17 meeting would be a perfect time to bring a guest or prospective member.

We are looking for volunteer to assume the duties of Program Chairperson. If you are interested, please contact me or Dick Vigal.

I received a request from the NAWCC National Convention committee. They are seeking cash or prizes for the June 23-25 meeting in Springfield, MO. I will call a Board meeting in March and we will decide this issue and anything else that needs to be decided.

Meeting Minutes

Business meeting was brought to order by Pres. Harold Baesler. There were 30 present for the meeting.

Introduction of guest and new members: Corlene Blue, Ginger Burr, Wayne Davis, Eric Jensen, James Melvin, and Merl Snell.

Secretary Mary Gonzalez reported on correspondence from NAWCC national, and from Chapter 53 Inland Empire on the Multi-chapter in March to be held once again in Connell, Washington.

Treasurer- Betty Chisum reported on the state of the chapter.

A Japanese Clock program was presented by Merle Snell and his wife. Merle gave a wonderful history of the Japanese Clock and differences from the western clocks. A few samples of early Japanese clocks were brought by members to share with the group, one of which was a basket-case brought in by Bill B.

Jeff Gonzalez awarded the monthly door prize, a book on long case clocks, to member Ron Dusek. Other books were raffled off too.

Once again Chapter 31 wants to thank Charlie Schubert for bringing wonderful cookies and coffee for the meeting. Thanks Charlie!

The next meeting will be held on February 17th at the Monarch Hotel in Clackamas Oregon. The meeting will include a modestly priced lunch. This location was chosen as a long time favorite since the Beaverton Library wouldn't be available to our group in February. Join us!!

From Dick Vigal, Program Chair

The February 17th meeting program will be a GIGANTIC show and tell and although the letter would have been " P ". I would like to take the chair prerogative and postpone the letter "P" until March and there will be no letter constraint. So everyone bring your favorite clock and tell us a little about it and there may be someone who might be able to add to your knowledge about your clock. I hope to see you there.

I am looking for a Programs Chair person to carry on this function, so if you would like to contribute to your club. please let me know.

Thanks,
Dick
