NAWCC Chapter 31

TIMEOUT

April , 2008

President's Message

I had a call from Philip C. Gregory, Chair of NAWCC Board of Directors after asking him to install our slate of offices at the Pac NW Regional. He is excited about coming to Portland and meeting us. He will be our guest speaker at our banquet, Sat. May 17. He has attended Regionals that were open to the public. He suggests that we should station a couple of people at the door to greet, promote NAWCC and answer any questions. This will be an exciting day and hope a lot of our members and co-host members volunteer as Red Cap helpers.

The installation of officers will be Fri. May 16. Time and room number to be confirmed and announced.

For those of you traveling East, I encourage you to visit the NAWCC. I was informed that an exhibit of Presidential Timepieces is opening April 18th.

Watches, clocks, images, stories & memorabilia of many U.S. Presidents will show their view about time and significant events during their time in office. Many of the exhibits brought together have never left their home museum.

See you at our April 20th meeting at the Beaverton Library.

Harold Baesler, Pres Ch 31.

We're on the web .. Check us out

From the Program Chair

April's program will be on the subject of clock case restoration where parts are missing and need to be made. I will also be talking with several other members about contributing some of their ideas to this program which will be conducted somewhat like a work shop.

Questions will be answered to the best of the presenter's ability (that's me!!). I hope to see you all there,

Dick

Pacific Northwest
Regional News

It's spring and time to plan for the regional on May 15-18, 2008. Since 1972, this regional's reputation has been great with a lot of innovative events.

We are pleased to announce Mart Central which will be a hub of activity with a mini-mart table, silent auction, door prize "wheel of chance", and a used horological book sale with drop dead prices.

And more good news — Mart Central (and all lectures) will be open to the general public on Saturday May 17. This new and exciting format has been sanctioned by NAWCC.

The Book Sale depends on member's donating their extra horological books for sale. The goal is to make affordable books available to others members and the public. Include in your donated material could be: catalogs, bulletins, or any book related to horology. I will arrange to have book donations brought to the regional, just let me know if you have any books to donate.

We are also looking for Door prize donations from co-hosting chapters as well as any cash donations from members. These donations will be used to purchase door prizes and will be greatly appreciated. Door prizes should be brought or sent to:
Charles J Schubert , Mart Central
Chairman
4235 S.W Hume ST Portland OR 97219.
Phone 503-244-8568 or Email
charschube@comcast.net

In closing, Chapters — please consider a chapter donated door prize and ask for any book donations at your meetings. We hope you will respond soon — all donations will be greatly appreciated.
Charles J Schubert

WANTED!
REDCAPS

Volunteers are needed to assist at the May regional. We are trying several changes this year and with your help the show will be a great success.

We are looking for help with: REGISTRATION, MINI-MART, MART CENTRAL, and SILENT AUCTION. We need help on Thursday and Saturday especially.

Please call or email Mark DeAtley at 503-289-3517 or clockymark@hotmail.com

I will contact you to get more specific information about days and times. Please sign up to help the chapter.

Thank you, Mark
